

Aboriginal Culture: The Oldest Living Culture

Explore Dreamtime, the story of Thukeri, and respectful ways to talk about Indigenous cultures.

Look closely: what do you notice?

Study an Aboriginal dot painting or an Australian outback scene. What do you already know? How old might this culture be?

LOOK FIRST. INTERPRET CAREFULLY.

Vocabulary: match the meaning

1. ancestor

2. sacred

3. greed

4. deceit

5. to curse

A	B	C	D	E
Dishonesty; hiding the truth.	To use angry or harmful words against someone.	A person from an earlier generation.	More than you need; wanting too much.	Important and respected in a spiritual sense.

Then predict: is Dreamtime about sleep?

LISTENING 1 · FIRST PART OF THE PODCAST

What is Dreamtime?

Listen and answer in short notes.

1 What is “Dreamtime”?

Definition: _____

2 What do Dreamtime stories do?

Name at least two things:

_____

Thukeri: build the story map

Listen to the story. Complete the map with evidence from the audio.

- Characters — Who are the main characters?
- Wrong action — What did the two fishermen do wrong?
- Punishment — What was their punishment?
- Lesson — What is the story's lesson?

Check your listening

1. Compare your story map with a partner.

2. Which detail proves that greed or deceit matters in the story?

3. Write the lesson in one sentence.

The coffee metaphor

“No matter how much _____ you put in coffee, it’s still _____.”

Complete the sentence. What does the metaphor mean?

How does it relate to Aboriginal identity?

The power of respectful words

Words can show respect, or they can repeat an old stereotype.

LISTEN FOR

Kevin’s recommendation

What modern term does Kevin recommend for Aboriginal people?

WRITE THE EXACT TERM YOU HEAR.

DISCUSS

Why terminology matters

Why can the right words show respect, while older terms can hurt or stereotype?

USE AN EXAMPLE FROM THE PODCAST.

FINAL DISCUSSION · ROUND TABLE

Round Table: a dialogue of cultures

1. Why are sharing and honesty important values in the story?

2. Why does terminology matter when we talk about other cultures?

3. What can we learn from the Australian experience of respect?

USE: “FROM MY POINT OF VIEW…” · “I SEE YOUR POINT, BUT…” · “IN MY COUNTRY, FOR EXAMPLE…”

LISTEN GENEROUSLY. SPEAK SPECIFICALLY.