California vs. Texas

What comes to mind?

Look at the two images. Which state does each image suggest? Add words and phrases to the board.

Criterion	California	Texas
Geography
Lifestyle
Taxes and spending
Political and cultural features

Vocabulary for today

coastal — located near the sea or ocean

---

conservative — holding traditional values and preferring stability

---

liberal — open to new ideas and social change

---

lifestyle — a way of living, including habits and attitudes

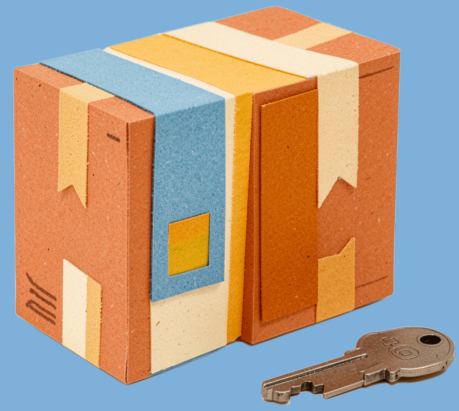

---

stereotype — a fixed idea about a group that is often not true

Predict the story

A couple moves from California to Texas expecting to be richer.

Why might they expect that?

Think about

taxes, housing, space, and everyday expenses

Viewing: compare the two states

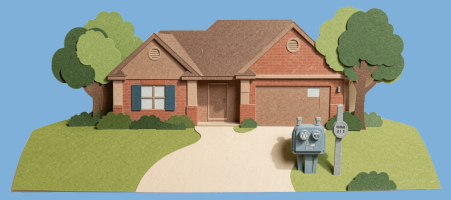

Watch the clips and complete the table.

Feature	California	Texas
Rent / mortgage
Taxes
Lifestyle: space and pace
		Overall conclusion

Use short notes, not full sentences.

AFTER VIEWING

What did the videos show?

More space

One person was happy to get more space for the same rent in Texas.

The calculation changed

Texas may have no state income tax, but property taxes, insurance, and utilities can be higher than expected.

The couple was unhappy because other expenses changed the calculation.

Did everyone have the same experience? Why or why not?

DIALOGUE OF CULTURES

Beyond the stereotype

Discuss in small groups:

Are all Texans cowboys?

Are all Californians surfers?

Why can regional stereotypes be dangerous?

Use the vocabulary from today and support your opinion with one example.

Role-play: US Relocation Agency

Your client is moving to the US but cannot decide between California and Texas.

1. Choose or create a client profile.
2. Recommend one state.
3. Prepare three reasons linked to the client's needs.
4. Present your recommendation as a relocation agent.

A good recommendation is specific, not stereotypical.

YOUR CLIENT

Choose your client

Client A

a 25-year-old vegan software engineer who loves surfing and hates cold weather

Client B

a 50-year-old conservative businessman who loves hunting, big cars, and low taxes

Client C

a retired couple who want quiet, warm weather, and a low cost of living

Your recommendation

Recommended state: _____

Reasons: 1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____